SHAGGERS HALL OF HAME

LEE HUGGINS

This picture was taken in 1950 or '51. Just off the dance floor at Robert's Pavillion at Ocean Drive.

I started trying to learn to dance in Junior High School in 1948. I am still trying to learn.

During and after high school, we were out dancing somewhere almost every night. Every place near Fayetteville that had a Juke Box and dance floor. And we were there.

Out of town, we went to Gray's near Dunn, Williams Lake, White Lake and the beach. Of all of the places I've danced, I always enjoyed Ocean Drive best.

The best thing about this dance and music are the life-long friendships I've made.
